Manitoba's total population was estimated at 1,178,348 persons as of January 1, 2006, up 239 persons from the October 1, 2005 estimate. Population growth continues on an annual basis, with Manitoba's increase since January 1, 2005 estimated at 3,389 persons, or 0.29%. A large portion of Manitoba's estimated population gain of 3,389 persons during 2005 was the result of immigration (8,098 persons).

We recorded an estimated net loss of 8,218 persons from other provinces through interprovincial migration in 2005, a difference of 6,798 persons from the net loss of 1,420 persons in 2004. In 2005, Manitoba gained population on a net basis chiefly from Yukon Territory (60), Newfoundland (50), the Northwest Territories (37) and Nova Scotia (31), while most of the losses were to Alberta (-4,993), British Columbia (-2,066) and Ontario (-833).

Interprovincial migration is generally offset to some degree by other types of population movement (international migration, Canadian citizens returning from abroad, non-permanent residents and Canadians temporarily abroad). When these other forms of population movement were combined with interprovincial migration, Manitoba recorded an overall net migration loss of 490 persons in 2005.

Net international migration for 2005 was 6,764 persons, up from 6,104 persons in 2004. This improvement is due to the increase in immigration that went from 7,426 persons in 2004 to 8,098 persons in 2005.

Note to Users:

MBS remains concerned that the fourth quarter and annual 2005 net interprovincial migration estimates are overstated. Previously concerns were raised with the second and third quarter estimates.

MBS believes that problems may exist with the administrative source information provided to Statistics Canada to develop the quarterly estimates.

These net interprovincial migration flows for 2005 are preliminary estimates. They will be revised starting in September 2006. Lower gross flows are expected with the revision.
